COLUMBUS DAY PARADE BY ITALIAN SOCIETIES.

Easton and Phillipsburg Organizations Plan Holiday Celebration Tuesday

The Italian Societies of Easton and Phillipsburg, will celebrate Columbuus Day, on October 12, set aside as a holiday in honor of Christopher Columbus, the discoverer of this country.

A big prade will take place in the afternoon at 2 o'clock and a dance will be held at the State hall in the evening.

The parade will have four divisions as follows First division, grand marshal, motorcycle police, committee Columbus Band, Columbus Society, Holy Cross Society, Saint Antonio Society, St. Placido Society, school children. Second division: Commonwealth Band, Garabaldi Society, Lodge of America. Order of Independence, Sommotino Society. Third division: Elks' Band, Lodge Cesare Batista, of Phillipsburg, Lodge Enrico Millo. Fourth division: Easton Band, Lodge of Allesandro Volta, followed by a score of automobiles.

The parade will start from the Easton Italian Home Association on South Fifth street, at 2 o'clock. From there it will go south on Fifth to Ferry street, west on Ferry to 10th north to Northampton, east to 4th street, south to Lehigh, east Third, north to Northampton, then down Northampton to the Delaware bridge and then up South Main street to the Columbus monument on the corner of Stockton and South Main streets, where a wreath will be placed.

A speech will be made by Chevelire Joseph Di Silverson, ex-grande master of the Order of Sons of Italy. The parade will then countermarch to Northampton street to Fifth where another speech will be made by Gallil and Congressmen Coyle and Everett Kent, Bangor, will also make addresses. The parade is in charge of Peter Casella, grand marshal. The executive committee is as follows. Nicola Todaro, president; James Re, recording secretary; Louis Versage, financial secretary; Peter Casella, treasurer.